

Con$ign-Net slated to receive award

WILTON — Con$ign-Net of Wilton will receive a silver Connecticut Quality Improvement Association award Innovation Prize plaque at the organization's 17th Annual Conference on Quality and Innovation on Oct. 13.

Con$ign-Net was founded in 2003 by Thomas Greenbaum, who also owns and operates Groups Plus, a leading marketing research company in Wilton since 1993.

Con$ign-Net, which is located adjacent to the Wilton Post Office, sells items on the Internet through eBa, for to consumers and retail stores and has listed almost 4,000 different items since the company was started.

— Staff and wire reports