

8/13/02

Stratford firm gets innovation award

STRATFORD — The Connecticut Quality Improvement Award Partnership Inc. will recognize Main Enterprises Inc. of Stratford with a silver entry level 2002 innovation prize in October.

According to the partnership, the company invented a fast-acting duct closure device that can automatically close off an air distribution system in the event of an emergency.