

CONNECTICUT POST

7/12/02

Norwalk business wins silver award

NORWALK — Advantage Human Resourcing recently won a silver CQIA innovation prize for TalentLink, an information management system.

The Connecticut Quality Improvement Award is given to companies that promote growth and success in business.

According to the employment company, this is the first time a woman-owned and operated business has won a CQIA award.