

7/5/02

Labor Dept. wins innovation prize

WETHERSFIELD — A Connecticut Department of Labor incumbent worker training program has earned a Connecticut Quality Improvement Award gold innovation prize.

The program helps small to mid-size manufacturers in the state address their training needs more efficiently and cost-effectively.